OKC-County Health Department Hosts Four Town Hall Meetings

Oklahoma City – County Health Department launches a Community Assessment process with a series of four town hall meetings in November. We are seeking community members and local organizations interested in the health and wellness of our community to offer insight into what a healthy Oklahoma City/County means.

What are the top health related needs and what are the barriers to the various areas in becoming the healthiest community in the state? As well as what types of programs or services should OCCHD explore launching or improving?
